CHAPTER 1

Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of the elect of God and the acknowledging of the truth, which is according to godliness:

² Unto the hope of life everlasting, which God, who lieth not, hath promised before the times of the world:

³ But hath in due times manifested his word in preaching, which is committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior:

⁴ To Titus my beloved son, according to the common faith, grace and peace from God the Father, and from Christ Jesus our Savior.

⁵ For this cause I left thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and shouldest ordain priests in every city, as I also appointed thee:

⁶ If any be without crime, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

⁷ For a bishop must be without crime, as the steward of God: not proud, not subject to anger, not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre:

⁸ But given to hospitality, gentle, sober, just, holy, continent:

⁹ Embracing that faithful word which is according to doctrine, that he may be able to exhort in sound doctrine, and to convince the gainsayers.

¹⁰ For there are also many disobedient, vain talkers, and seducers: especially they who are of the circumcision:

¹¹ Who must be reprov'd, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

¹² One of them a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slothful bellies.

¹³ This testimony is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

¹⁴ Not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men, who turn themselves away from the truth.

¹⁵ All things are clean to the clean: but to them that are defiled, and to unbelievers, nothing is clean: but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

¹⁶ They profess that they know God: but in their works they deny him; being abominable, and incredulous, and to every good work reprobate.

CHAPTER 2

But speak thou the things that become sound doctrine:

- ² That the aged men be sober, chaste, prudent, sound in faith, in love, in patience.
- ³ The aged women, in like manner, in holy attire, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teaching well:
- ⁴ That they may teach the young women to be wise, to love their husbands, to love their children,
- ⁵ To be discreet, chaste, sober, having a care of the house, gentle, obedient to their husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.
- ⁶ Young men, in like manner, exhort that they be sober.
- ⁷ In all things shew thyself an example of good works, in doctrine, in integrity, in gravity,
- ⁸ The sound word that can not be blamed: that he, who is on the contrary part, may be afraid, having no evil to say of us.
- ⁹ Exhort servants to be obedient to their masters, in all things pleasing, not gainsaying:
- ¹⁰ Not defrauding, but in all things shewing good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things:
- ¹¹ For the grace of God our Savior hath appeared to all men;
- ¹² Instructing us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, and justly, and godly in this world,
- ¹³ Looking for the blessed hope and coming of the glory of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ,
- ¹⁴ Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and might cleanse to himself a people acceptable, a pursuer of good works.
- ¹⁵ These things speak, and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3

Admonish them to be subject to princes and powers, to obey at a word, to be ready to every good work.

- ² To speak evil of no man, not to be litigious, but gentle: shewing all mildness towards all men.
- ³ For we ourselves also were some time unwise, incredulous, erring, slaves to divers desires and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
- ⁴ But when the goodness and kindness of God our Savior appeared:
- ⁵ Not by the works of justice, which we have done, but according to his mercy, he saved us, by the laver of regeneration, and renovation of the Holy Ghost;
- ⁶ Whom he hath poured forth upon us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Savior:
- ⁷ That, being justified by his grace, we may be heirs, according to hope of life everlasting.
- ⁸ It is a faithful saying: and these things I will have thee affirm constantly: that they, who believe in God, may be careful to excel in good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
- ⁹ But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law. For they are unprofitable and vain.
- ¹⁰ A man that is a heretic, after the first and second admonition, avoid:
- ¹¹ Knowing that he, that is such an one, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned by his own judgment.

- ¹² When I shall send to thee Artemas or Tychicus, make haste to come unto me to Nicopolis. For there I have determined to winter.
- ¹³ Send forward Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollo, with care, that nothing be wanting to them.
- ¹⁴ And let our men also learn to excel in good works for necessary uses: that they be not unfruitful.
- ¹⁵ All that are with me salute thee: salute them that love us in the faith. The grace of God be with you all. Amen.
